

A. — An irrigated farm at the base of Timpanogos Peak in the Utah Valley. There are hundreds of farms like this in the irrigated parts of this valley under the very shadow of snow-clad Wasatch Mountains.

Anciently:	DATE
Aztec explorers	1500?
Utes & Shoshonis
1776 Domingues & Escalante	1776
John C. Fremont
Wm Henry Ashley
1839-60 "Forting In"
1867 Indian Raids & Repridations in Timp. Valley

"The Mountain"

The Indians spoke of it as
"The Mountain"

The earliest known Indians in the Timpanogos Area were the Aztecs located on the west slopes

Utes & Shoshonis located in Provo River Valley

Timpanogos, meaning "Sleeping Woman" was also given to "The Mountain."

Timpanogos Valley name was also given to the Valley by the Indians, which valley was later called Provo River Valley and still later was referred Heber Valley

perhaps we need to unite People of Heber Valley

ever name of Timpanogos

y, Swiss Valley, or Provo River Valley.

Anglo Saxon
Village